NOVA PLASTIC CASINGS

Tailor-made plastic casings for both industrial processing and retail sales of a wide variety of pet food products.

Fetch More Sales

Our high-resolution photo-quality printing utilizes temperature-resistant, durable inks, ensuring exceptional print quality and maximum longevity for both raw and thermally processed products. Crafted from specialized manufacturing materials, our solutions are designed for high-speed, precise production. Innovative techniques guarantee superior adherence of product date codes. Additionally, we offer high-barrier, recyclable options and other eco-friendly formats that help reduce carbon footprints by minimizing packaging material usage.

Paws-itively Reduce Operational Costs

Designed for industrial processing, new high-visibility colors, easy-to-remove casing options enhance yield, reduce costs, and improve finished product safety. Proven in high-pressure pasteurization (HPP) and thermal processing, our casings ensure fast, reliable removal, preventing downstream contamination. Ideal for high-value dehydrated pet foods, they help preserve nutritional integrity while optimizing production.

PACKAGING MATERIALS

VIVID POUCHES

From outstanding visuals to packaging cost reduction, the Vivid pouch line helps build your business and profits.

Paw-some Packaging: Products That Stand Out

Visually striking prints available in gloss, matte and combination finishes with ultra-high resolution printing process for photo realism to create maximum product sales. Print up to 10 colors for combining photo realistic images with eye popping solid colors and tactile finishes.

Tail Wagging Savings

We have helped customers save thousands on packaging and transport costs by switching to our flexible pouches. With various formats, including bottom and side gusset, flat, and flat zipper pouches, we have experience across food and non-food pet products to help design the perfect pouch for optimal sales and cost savings. Our line also includes cook-in and liquid spout pouches for diverse applications.

ALLY FILMS

High performance thermoforming films built to maximize value and performance on all of today's leading equipment.

Crystal Clear & Doggone Strong

Help your product shine through with ultra-clear, high-clarity films and tough, durable construction to handle a wide array of pet applications to achieve maximum yield and lowest level of rework.
